YOUR ACTION, THEIR FREEDOM

Start an Abolition Group and Help #EndSlavery

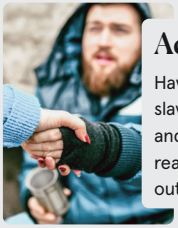
WHAT DO HOPE FOR JUSTICE ABOLITION GROUPS DO?

Educate

Make it hard for traffickers to hide their victims and their crimes. Abolition Groups develop a solid understanding of the scope of human trafficking and are empowered to raise awareness in their communities and beyond.

Fund

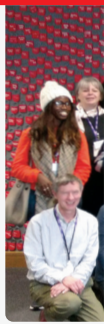
You can help Hope or Justice to fund freedom! Your group will be given a main contact at Hope for Justice, who will provide you with fun and accessible fundraising ideas, and help you to develop your own. With their support you can fundraise knowing that every single penny you raise will go towards ending slavery and changing lives.



Act

Have fun and do good. With practical ways to support survivors of slavery, you can help the Hope for Justice team to raise awareness and create change. We'll help you to write letters, sign petitions and reach out to your local member of parliament, man stalls and hand out leaflets. You can become a leader in the anti-slavery movement.

HOW DO I START A HOPE FOR JUSTICE ABOLITION GROUP?



Get in touch with Hope for Justice

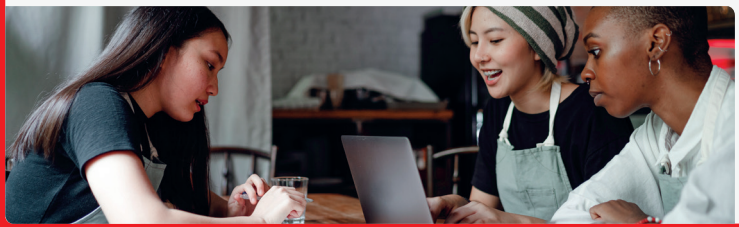
Sign up to start an Abolition Group by scanning the QR code and filling out the form. Our team will be in touch soon to support you through your abolition journey, by providing resources, advice and a friendly face.

Find your people

So many people want to make a difference but don't know how. You can help people in your local community, church, business, school or university to make a meaningful difference simply by chatting to them and inviting them to join your Abolition Group.

Plan your first meeting

Change starts with a conversation. Once you've found your group, arrange your first meeting to chat about how you plan on making an impact! You could meet in person, online or both.



Learn more about modern slavery

Once you have your first meeting arranged, let Hope for Justice know and we can provide you with resources to learn more about modern slavery, including key facts and statistics, survivor stories and possibly even a Hope for Justice speaker. All of which will tell you more about what modern slavery actually is and the incredible work that we can do together to put an end to it.

Plan of action

Now you've got your group, you know the facts and you're ready to take action, make a plan of action for the upcoming months. Some of our groups meet monthly, others quarterly or even twice a year. Work out what works for you and make a plan to keep up to date and active.

Set up your socials

Social media is a great way of staying in touch and spreading a message. Why not set up your own Hope for Justice Abolition Group social media accounts to consistently raise awareness about modern slavery!

ARE YOU READY TO CHANGE LIVES AND END SLAVERY?

To join or start an Abolition Group simply scan the QR code.

A member of the Hope for Justice team will be in touch with you soon to chat to you about starting your group.

Freedom really is worth the fight and Abolition Groups can directly impact the lives of those trapped in slavery.

We educate others on the issue of trafficking and spread the word. We raise much-needed funds for the vital work of Hope for Justice. We campaign and add our voices to the movement... and we pray and punch holes in the darkness!

Joining or starting your own Abolition Group is straightforward and Hope for Justice provides fantastic ongoing support. We would definitely encourage anyone who wants to take a stand to go for it and get involved!

We've found that many people have wanted to do something about human trafficking, but not known how. Hope for Justice has been so supportive. Their friendly team values each volunteer and really makes you feel like part of the team. The resources they provide are brilliant, accessible, engaging and relevant.
